Survey of Students Leaving the University of Maryland During the Semester  R. Spring 2020

The University of Maryland would like your help in obtaining the best possible information about your experience at UMD and about the issues behind your decision to depart during the semester. Your thoughtful responses on this survey are very important and very much appreciated. In accordance with UMD policy, your responses are treated as confidential. Your student ID may be used to link responses from this survey to information maintained by the University. This might include but not be limited to race, gender, academic major, and subsequent enrollment status. Grouped data may be used for a variety of research and institutional purposes, such as developing internal and external reports, and improving the quality of programs, services, and education at UMD. If we write a report or article about this research project, your identity will be protected to the maximum extent possible in that we merge your data with that provided by other students, and NO individual identities will ever be included. Your participation in this research is completely voluntary, and you may choose to skip any of the questions in this survey. Please note that your information may be shared with representatives of the University of Maryland, College Park or governmental authorities if you or someone else is in danger or if we are required to do so by law. For campus resources, see https://counseling.umd.edu/resourcedirectory/. Thank you for your time!
